FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wyoming Landscape Architect Elected Secretary of International Organization

RESTON, Va., October 17, 2016 – Wyoming landscape architect Allison Fleury has been elected to a two-year term (2016–2018) as Secretary of the Board of Directors for the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Boards (CLARB).

Previously for CLARB, Fleury served a two-year term (2014–2016) as Region 4 Director, as a member of the Landscape Architecture Continuing Education Systems Administration Committee (2013–2015), as Region 4 Alternate Director (2012–2014), on the Redline Committee in 2012 and on the Grading Committee in January 2011 and July 2010.

Closer to home, Fleury has served on the Wyoming Board of Architects and Landscape Architects since 2009, and was President from 2014-2015.

Fleury earned a Bachelor of Applied Arts, Human Geography from Ryerson Polytechnical Institute in 1987 and her Masters of Landscape Architecture from the University of Guelph in 1994. She is currently a licensed landscape architect in Wyoming (and Idaho) at Inside Out Landscape Architecture LLC and is also a CLARB Certified landscape architect.

About CLARB

Since 1970, CLARB has been dedicated to ensuring that all individuals who affect the natural and built environment through the practice of landscape architecture are sufficiently qualified to do so. CLARB and its members work together to establish standards for education, experience and examination required for the professional licensure of landscape architects. CLARB's members include the licensure boards that regulate the profession of landscape architecture in the United States; Puerto Rico; and the Canadian provinces of Alberta, British Columbia and Ontario.
